Station coolie arrested by Japanese Gendarmes

Sir,

At about 11.30 a.m. 10/10/39, two vegetable hawkers in the Hongkew Market reported that Yih Yao King (葉耀根), a coolie attached to Hongkew Station, was arrested by the Japanese Gendarme in the market. On receipt of the report, the undersigned proceeded to the scene, where a Japanese Military Police Officer named Y. Ozawa was seen about to take the above coolie to his Headquarters at Bridge House for enquiries on the ground that the coolie had interfered with the performance of his duty.

On being explained the position of the coolie this officer stated that whilst he was walking along Hanbury Road with his Chinese interpreter, he saw someone throwing a number of pamphlets from the 1st. floor of the market, and upon coming up to the scene, he saw two Chinese children were distributing the pamphlets. Whilst he was making enquiries from the children, Yih Yao King approached him and interfered with in a molesting manner. He further added that the coolie could not be handed over to the undersigned before completion of his enquiries at his Headquarters. The coolie, together with the two children, was then taken to the Bridge House, from where Yih was released at 12.15 p.m.

With a view to finding any of the pamphlets, the undersigned looked through the scene, but no pamphlets could be located.

A copy of the pamphlets confiscated by the Gendarmes was obtained from the Bridge House, translation of which is forwarded herewith.

A statement in connection with the affair has been taken from the station coolie.

It was learned that the two children were also released after unsuccessful enquiries regarding the origin of the pamphlets issued.

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of Yih Yao Kung (葉耀根), native of Pootung taken ~~by~~ Clerk Chao Tung Sheng.
at Hongkew Stn. on the 10/10/39 translated and interpreted by Clerk Wong Soong Yueh.

My name is Yih Yao Kung, age 38 years, native of Pootung, M/coolie employed with Hongkew C.I.D. Office, residing at No. 283 Woodchang Road.

A little after 11 a.m. on the October 10th, 1939, whilst I was buying salt vegetable in the Hongkew Market on the 1st. floor I saw a crowd of people, amongst them were two boys.

Out of curiosity I enquired of a vegetable hawker what had happened and he replied that he did not know.

At this juncture a Chinese, who was standing behind me, slapped my face and he claimed to be a member of the Japanese Gendarmerie Headquarters and ordered me not to move.

In view of this I requested two vegetable hawkers to report to the Station.

At about 12 noon D.P.S. 630 attached to Hongkew Police Station arrived on the scene and spoke to the Japanese gendarmes.

After this, two Japanese gendarmes took me to the Headquarters located in the Bridge House, on North Szechuen Road.

In the office a Japanese gendarme through the interpretation of a Chinese, who had slapped my face, I was told that the two boys whom I had seen in the Hongkew Market, were distributing pamphlets.

After this explanation they told me to go.

The above statement is true.

Signed: Yih Yao Kung.

Subject October 10th Anniversary

Made by and Forwarded by D.I. Crawford

October 10th, Chinese National Day, passed off quietly in the Settlement and French Concession, only a small quantity of handbills of a national salvation nature being surreptitiously distributed.

At 1.50 p.m. two ricksha coolies were arrested on Robison Road near Hart Road, for being found in possession of four handbills of a pro-Jang Ching Wei and anti-Communist nature, which they claimed to have picked up in Chapei. They were released later the same day.

At 12.05 p.m. a Chinese youth named Hu Zhen-tri (胡傳泰), was arrested by the French Police at the corner of Boulevard de Montigny and Avenue Edward VII for disseminating handbills of a national salvation nature. His home address at 330 Hai-phong Road was visited the same day by the French Police with the assistance of the Municipal Police, but nothing of an incriminating nature was discovered.

In 1939, since beyond the Settlement limits, one meeting took place in the extra-Settlement Roads area, one meeting in Chapei, one meeting and one procession in Nantao and one meeting in Footung. Brief particulars of these functions are as follows :-

In Western District, C.O.L.

In celebration of the Double Tenth Anniversary, some 100 students belonging to a number of primary schools situated in the extra-Settlement roads area in the Western District held a meeting between 9.30 a.m.

Speeches were made by a number of officers of the Western District Police Bureau and the slogans in support of the peace movement by Wang Ching Wei and "long live the Republic of China" were voiced by the attendance. A Japanese flag and a five-barred flag were displayed at the entrance while a large photograph of Wang Ching Wei was exhibited in the compound where the meeting took place.

Throughout the day (October 10), Kuomintang flags and the Chinese National flags were to be seen displayed at the entrance of House 1081, Jessfield Road, O.C.L. and House 121 Brennan Road, O.O.L., both premises being occupied by members of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern and National Salvation Army as branch offices.

It is also worthy of note that a Chinese national flag was seen flying over the building of the Central China Daily News, 303 Honan Road. This paper is well known as the mouth-piece of Wang Ching Wei.

Information contained in a news report in the October 11th issue of the China Press that similar flags were also flying over the sub-stations of the representative of the Great People Society, and Sung Sing-fu (沈醒夫), representative of the Chinese Labourers' Welfare Association. The meeting was presided over by Sung Sz-ching.

During a speech, Sung Sz-ching spoke on the significance of the occasion and stressed the necessity of promoting peace for the cause of national salvation. Similar addresses were made by others attending the meeting.

At the close of the meeting, a procession was held which travelled the main streets of Mantao and dispersed at the starting point at 2 p.m.

During the meeting and the subsequent procession, the following slogans were shouted :-

- (1) Double Tenth Festival is the occasion to commemorate the peace campaign of Mr. Wang Ching Wei!
- (2) To celebrate the Double Tenth, we must strive to establish a new order in the Orient!
- (3) To celebrate the Double Tenth we must promote peace in the East Asia!
- (4) Sino-Japanese mutual existence and mutual prosperity!

Copies of a pro-Japanese handbill (specimen attached) were distributed during the procession.

General NISHIO has arrived in China for the final liquidation of the China Incident.

With an unswerving determination, Japan is bent on thoroughly liquidating the China incident, in order to chastise and destroy the anti-Japanese Kuomintang-Communist forces and to assist China with her full strength to build a new nation. It was with this end in view that Japan established in China Headquarters of the Expeditionary Forces the Commander-in-Chief of which, General Nishio and his staff, arrived in China on September 29.

The present hostilities broke out because the intrigues of Great Britain had been successful in estranging the relations between China and Japan, thereby strengthening her own position in China. The Chinese Communist Party is also responsible for the outbreak of the China Incident as the Chinese communists are making use of the Chinese Dictator, Chiang Kai-shek, in their task of fostering communist influence in the whole of China. Chiang Kai-shek has fallen into the trap laid by the communists and has been fighting with the neighbour nation with the result that millions of Chinese people are to-day suffering untold hardships. The European war has already broken out following the recent declaration of war against Germany by Great Britain, France and Poland. After the signing of the Soviet-Japanese truce, all external assistance which the Chiang Regime has hitherto received ceased.

In the meantime, Wang Ching Wei has, in the face of many difficulties, initiated negotiations for the restoration of peace for the salvation of this nation. Apart from effecting cooperation with the Reformed and Provisional Governments and the bona fide Kuomintang, he is also receiving the aid of all non-partisan patriotic individuals for the eventual inauguration of a new Central Government.

It is hoped that all will rise and support the peace campaign for the salvation of China.

Inflammatory Handbills Scattered in Hongkew

More than 100 mimeographed inflammatory handbills were scattered in front of the Hongkew Market, at Woosung and Boone Road, during a busy market hour at about 10 a.m. on Tuesday, on the occasion of the Double Ten celebration, the Shanghai "Mainichi" reported yesterday.

The anti-Japanese handbills were issued by the Shanghai Group for The Extermination on General Principles of Chinese Traitors," the paper said.

Japanese Sentry Kills Chinese Pedestrian

A Japanese sentry stationed on the Nantao side of Sikawei Creek opposite Avenue du Roi Albert fired one shot at 6.30 a.m. yesterday, killing a Chinese who was walking along the bank of the creek on the Nantao side. A few minutes later, a number of Chinese arrived and picked up the dead man, carrying him away.

It was impossible to ascertain the reason for the shooting which was witnessed by large crowds from the French Concession side of the creek.

"Double Tenth" Passes Without Slightest Incident

Extensive Precautions Taken by Authorities; Chinese Public Bodies Cable Chiang Kai-shek

WITH Chinese flags flying from many buildings in the International Settlement and the French Concession yesterday on the occasion of the "Double Tenth", the day past quietly as expected and not the slightest incident occurred. A large number of police patrols and search parties were active from early morning until late last night while curfew was strictly enforced both on Monday night and yesterday.

Military detachments from the Seaforth Highlanders, the East Surreys, the United States Marines and the Russian Regiment, S.V.C. were on active duty throughout the day and two men each were stationed on the South side of all bridges over Soochow Creek, while police search parties were particularly active on Honan Road and Szechuen Road Bridge where nearly all pedestrians and vehicles were searched. S.V.C. vans with mounted Lewis-guns patrolled all sectors of the International Settlement while hotels and lodging houses were carefully searched but without result.

In the French Concession, the usual precautionary measures were taken and many streets and alleyways both in the Concession and the Settlement, were barred by barbed-wire entanglements which had been erected overnight.

The Chinese population not only celebrated the anniversary of the Chinese independence yesterday, but the day was all the more solemn in view of the Chinese victories in Hunan. A number of Chinese public bodies yesterday dispatched a telegram to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in which they congratulated the troops responsible for the victories and assured the Chinese leader of their loyalty.

The Police Specials were on duty both on Monday night and throughout yesterday and assisted the regular police in their duties, while the Shanghai Volunteer Corps was on "precautionary" although a number of units had been on duty on Monday night.

Special precautions were taken by the Japanese military authorities in the vicinity of Shanghai as there was a possibility of guerillas going into action. Up to a late hour last night, however, no information to that effect was available.

The Chinese press was filled with congratulatory messages addressed to the Chungking Government in which the loyalty of the Shanghai Chinese was borne out, while assurances were given that the Chungking Government would be the only legal Government recognized by them.

Theatres and other places of amusement, were thronged yesterday as all banks and major business firms were closed. Roof-gardens remained closed, however, by order of the police.

Making the day more meaningful than before the Chinese people throughout the country celebrated yesterday their National Holiday and also the victory of their army in Hunan as reported by the Chinese press. The same idea was entertained by the Chinese in Shanghai yesterday when Chinese public bodies sent a telegram to Gen. Chiang Kai-shek congratulating him for the victory and assuring their loyalty. All Chinese Government organizations, banks and large firms were closed and Chinese National flags were hoisted everywhere, but no meetings were held.

Congratulatory remarks were published in the Chinese press by Chinese firms and shops and at least one Chinese daily published a supplement. The National Government declaration refusing to recognize the existence of "puppet" administrations on occupied areas and reiterating that the Government at Chungking is the only Chinese Government having all sovereign rights was given prominence by the leading Chinese newspapers. Chungking will not recognize the validity of any notices issued by or treaties entered into by new régimes, it is stated.

There was a big contrast between Chinese newspapers here and the Japanese and pro-Japanese newspapers yesterday. While all of them published Double Tenth celebration stories the Chinese victory story was conspicuous by its absence in the latter papers. Minute details of the tactics used by the Chinese in scoring the victory in Hunan were given by the Chinese papers loyal to Chungking, quoting a commander at the front.

Mr. Wang Ching-wei's organ, the "Central China Daily News," refrained from publishing the war story from either side and in an autographed article entitled, "The New Life of the Republic of China," he stressed the importance of peace and of the establishment of a constitutional régime. He recalled that Japan took Canton last year when the Chinese were celebrating their National Holiday. He was determined to wipe out corruption which was responsible for the defeat in order to create a "new life" for China, he stated.

New York Chinese Celebrate

New York, Oct. 10.

Approximately 8,000 Chinese establishments, including every Chinese laundry in the city will close today, while 15,000 Chinese will visit the New York World Fair in celebration of China day, commemorating the founding of the Chinese Republic.

The celebration will open at the Court of Peace at 2.30 p.m. and will be followed by a luncheon at the terrace Club, where a group of notables, including Mr. Fiorello La Guardia, the Mayor of New York, and Mr. Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States will greet the Chinese Ambassador to Washington, Dr. Hu Shih.

The day's events will conclude with a salute to China at the Lagoon of Nations, featured by a display of Chinese pyrotechnics. Speakers will include the Chinese Consul, Mr. Tsung Chi-yu, Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, Jun, Dr. Hu, and Bishop Francis J. McConnel of San Francisco.

An ancient rice bowl will be presented to Mr. Roosevelt in recognition of his aid to civilian refugees in China.—United Press.

Hongkong Celebration Off

Hongkong, Oct. 10.

An unexpected hitch caused the cancellation of plans for an elaborate celebration of the double tenth anniversary in Chinese circles here today.

It had been arranged to hold a big ceremony in the King's Theatre with more than 100 Chinese organizations participating. Gen. Wu Te-chen, former Governor of Kwangtung Province, was to have presided at the festive meeting, according to announcements.

Then the plans were changed suddenly and the joint celebration was called off. A separate ceremony took place in the Queen's Theater with leading Chinese residents of Hongkong presiding.

No reason was given for the change in plans, but it was believed that it was due to the Hongkong Government's dislike of political demonstrations.

Chinese shops and banks were decorated with blue sky, white sun flags. Funds were raised by selling flags.—Domei.

Manila Chinese Celebrate

Manila, Oct. 10.

Hundred of Chinese flags flew over restaurants, tailor shops, stores and residences throughout the city today in observance of the birth of the Chinese Republic.

The Chinese Consul-General, Dr. C. Kuangson Young, spoke at a joint meeting of the various Chinese organizations on the occasion.—United Press.

Chungking's Celebrations

Chungking, Oct. 10.

The entire population turned out today in a festive mood to celebrate the anniversary of the founding of the Chinese Republic 28 years ago. The city was gaily beflagged and all Government, Party and military offices were elaborately decorated, while the brilliant sunshine and warm weather brought out huge crowds to join the mass meetings and parades.

Streets were particularly crowded tonight when hundreds of thousands lined the main avenues to watch the torchlight procession.

Much laughter was created by the sight of the "Traitors of the Nation" costume parade, which included an effigy of Mr. Wang Ching-wei, deposed Kuomintang deputy.—Reuter.

Double Tenth Celebrations In Shanghai Pass Quietly

Chinese National Flags Seen Throughout City
Including Over "Ta Tao" Sub-stations;
Coolie Shot By Japanese

With the exception of the shooting of a Chinese coolie by Japanese gendarmes on the banks of Zikawei Creek yesterday morning, the 28th anniversary of the founding of the Chinese Republic passed without incident of major importance.

Chinese national flags flew over the shops and homes of most patriotic Chinese living in the International Settlement and the French Concession while most business establishments, both Chinese and foreign, were closed for the day.

In some cases, Chinese national flags were to be found fluttering over buildings known to be occupied by puppet officials. For instance, the "White Sun and Blue Sky with Red Background" banner, was seen flying over the "Special Service Corps" headquarters of the "Ta Tao" police as well as several "Ta Tao" sub-stations.

Puppet Police Active

Although no direct explanation concerning the appearance of Chinese national flags over "Ta Tao" headquarters and sub-stations could be obtained last night, observers were of the opinion that it represented nothing that might be called patriotism. They were rather inclined to believe that the raising of the flags by the "Ta Tao" men was more of a gesture of attempted friendliness towards really patriotic Chinese living in the extra-Settlement road areas than anything else.

Despite the appearance of Japanese gendarmes around the sub-stations, the flags remained flying and in some cases, they were not taken down until nightfall. Chinese national flags also were seen flying over offices in the down-town districts of the Settlement known to be occupied by Wang Ching-wei supporters.

Chinese national flags over "Ta Tao" police stations were not the only interesting sight to be found in the western district yesterday morning. Despite the presence of reinforced S.M.P. patrols along extra-Settlement roads, the "Ta Tao" police were out in force on the same streets. With the exception of the man on traffic post duty, most of the puppets were armed with rifles and made half-hearted attempts to carry out patrol work.

Search Parties Active

In addition to the patrols, Shanghai Municipal Police search parties were kept on duty at the intersections of Jessfield Road, Avenue Road, Avenue Haig, and Yu Yuen and Edinburgh Roads. "Ta Tao" search parties were in complete control in Tsakadoo (Jessfield Village), operating in groups of five men each.

No explanation of the Zikawei Creek shooting could be obtained yesterday. According to eye-witnesses, a Chinese wearing coolie clothes, attempted to cross the creek about 6.30 a.m. and was hailed by Japanese sentries on the Nantao side. The man is said to have turned back after being challenged whereupon the sentries opened fire. He was killed instantly and the body is reported to have been removed by the French authorities.

City Armed Camp

Both the Settlement and the French Concession were armed camps yesterday, the police and military authorities having taken the usual precautionary measures. Street intersections along Avenue Edward VII and Avenue Poch were barricaded off throughout the day but because of the complete lack of criminal and terrorist activity, the police started to remove the barricades about 10 p.m.

Police Specials, the Russian Regiment of the S.V.C., 4th U.S. Marines, and the British and Italian defense forces rendered invaluable assistance to the Settlement police by assisting in search party work, street patrol and traffic control work. These men were demobilized about midnight.

The French police carried out intensive search party work throughout the Concession yesterday but made no seizures of pistols nor were any arrests reported. Armed crime also was lacking in both foreign settlements yesterday with only a few minor cases of petty larceny and robbery being reported.

Message To Chiang

Patriotic Chinese groups were reported to have dispatched a telegram to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek yesterday morning. The message is said to have re-affirmed the loyalty of Shanghai Chinese to the cause of China against the Japanese and, at the same time, to have congratulated the Generalissimo for the Changsha victories.

The Chinese drive for winter relief funds, it was learned in reliable circles last night, has already provided $100,000 in cash with another $100,000 being sought locally. This money will be expended on the purchase of winter clothing for soldiers and the destitute. The funds collected in Shanghai will be remitted to the drive headquarters at Chungking.

Dual Search Parties On "Outside" Roads

The only outstanding features in yesterday's precautions were the dual search-parties active on the "outside" Settlement Roads when not only S.M.P. parties but also those of the "Special Municipality" police searched all pedestrians including tram and bus passengers who thus underwent two searches, one succeeding the other. The "Special Municipality" parties were under the command of N.C.O.s of the Japanese Gendarmerie and those actually taking part in the searches carried high-powered Mauser pistols while others were armed with rifles.

ANTI-JAPANESE HANDBILLS DISTRIBUTED NEAR HONGKOW MARKET

It is reported that at 10 a.m. yesterday about hundred copies of handbills containing anti-Japanese slogans issued by the Kwang Ngi Traitors Extermination Corps were distributed near the Hongkew market, corner of Loosung Road and Boone Road. The person responsible for the distribution made good his escape. The Japanese Military Police are making an investigation.

DOUBLE TENTH FESTIVAL PASSES OFF QUIETLY

Yesterday was National Day and the Chinese flag was flown throughout Shanghai. Lest undesirable elements should take advantage of the occasion to create disturbances, the authorities of the Foreign Settlements adopted strict precautions throughout the day. Many streets were barricaded and large parties of detectives and policemen were posted for duty at various thoroughfares to search pedestrians. The foreign defence forces were also on duty. Red vans and armoured cars were busy on the streets on patrol duty.

At 8 a.m. yesterday, the French Police searched Min Teh Li (明德里), Rue Brenier de Montmorend, the Dah Fong Hotel (大才飯店), Rue Tourane, and Passage 103, Route Stanislas Chevalier.

The Police patrol parties and the British defence force adopted precautions on the borders in the Western District. City Government policemen and Japanese soldiers yesterday searched buses, trams and residences on the outside roads.

The number of Japanese gendarmes in Footung and Hongkew was increased yesterday. No celebrations of the occasion were held.

Certain unknown persons distributed handbills on the morning of October 10 in front of the Koo Ka Zah Park in the French Concession. Apart from this, the day passed off quietly and no disturbances took place.

Situation in Outside Roads Area

A section of the residents in the extra-Settlement roads area in the Western District hoisted the Chinese flag yesterday, but City Government policemen interfered and confiscated the flags. Barriocades were placed yesterday at the intersections of Jessfield and Avenue Roads and along Avenue Haig. Small openings were left for the passage of pedestrians and vehicles. Detectives and policemen of the Municipal Police and the members of the S.V.C. were posted for duty on the borders in the Western District, while City Government policemen were also mobilized. Pedestrians and vehicles were searched by both sides.

At Zau Ka Tu, the number of City Government policemen was increased yesterday. Patrol parties of the City Government policemen were active on the streets searching pedestrians.

The Route 7 and Route 10 buses and the Route 16 and Route 19 railless trams shortened the lines and did not proceed to Brennan Piece.

The general public are attaching importance to the activities of the Special Service Corps of a certain party in the Western District. When they hold meetings, they display the Kuomintang and the national flags at the meeting room. On October 10, the Corps displayed the blue-sky and white-sun Kuomintang flag at their gate to celebrate the Double Tenth Festival. Some members of the Corps wore steel helmets and carried big swords strapped on their backs.

"A" Sector North of the Soochow Creek

The Kiangse Road Bridge was completely barricaded yesterday. The Municipal Police placed barbed wire entanglements on North Soochow Road, west of the Kiangse Road Bridge and a small opening was left in the middle of the street for the convenience of pedestrians and vehicles. Detectives and policemen were posted to search pedestrians and vehicles.

The openings at the intersections of North Kiangse Road and Boone Road and North Kiangse Road and Haining Road were not closed yesterday. Japanese soldiers were stationed at these places to search pedestrians. Japanese soldiers at the intersections of Range Road and North Kiangse Road have been withdrawn.

Conditions along North Honan Road were unchanged with the exception of a noticeable increase in the number of officers of the S.M.P. on patrol duty.

From the Kiangse Road Bridge up to Range Road not a national flag was seen flying to celebrate the day. This was probably due to a desire to avoid untoward incidents.

Residents in Occupied Areas Forced to Hoist Five-Barred Flags

Yesterday flags were also hoisted by the puppet authorities in the occupied areas of Shanghai, but the flags displayed were five-barred flags. The Shanghai City Government Police Bureau detailed men to call at various shops to order them to hoist the five-barred flag.

According to a certain person who made a tour of Pootung yesterday, five-barred flags were flying at Nan Hong (南行), but at Poh Hong (北行) national flags were in evidence.

DUTY OF CITIZENS ON THE DOUBLE TENTH

To-morrow being the Double Tenth Festival, various official organs, such as the Customs House, the Courts, the Post Office, the schools, banks and public bodies, will observe the day as a holiday. To celebrate the occasion, various circles will hoist the flag to-morrow in accordance with the agreement reached between the various public bodies and the authorities of the Foreign Settlements.

Owing to the existing state of emergency, the local public, in compliance with the instructions of the Chungking Government, will not celebrate the occasion in the usual way. The people of Shanghai have become very excited on recalling the hardships of the revolutionary martyrs in the establishment of the Chinese Republic and on hearing of the unprecedented victory at the front in north Hunan, but they will not overlook the instructions of the authorities: "Do not be proud when you are victorious; do not be discouraged when you are defeated," but they will work hard and strenuously to perform the duty of citizens so as to effect the accomplishment of the grand work of reconstruction of the nation through the war of resistance.

FILE
The Nation-Wide Winter Clothing Soliciting Movement Committee will aim at the obtaining of 3,000,000 cotton padded vests for the current year. However, owing to the special circumstances in Shanghai, a sum of $200,000, instead of winter clothing, will be solicited. During the past few days the public have pushed forward the movement and the various government banks have received many contributions. To-morrow being the time to accelerate the movement, it is believed that local citizens will voluntarily participate in the movement in large numbers. The head office of the Nation-Wide Winter Clothing Soliciting Movement Committee has decided to conclude the movement on October 31.

As difficulties are still being experienced in repatriating refugees and in view of the increase in the price of commodities, the various relief bodies in Shanghai, in compliance with the decision reached by the Refugee Relief Association, will continue the soliciting of contributions.

To-morrow being the Double Tenth Festival, the International Relief Committee, the Federation of Charity Organizations and the Shanghai Emergency Relief Committee are prepared to welcome all those who wish to visit refugee camps to comfort the refugees.

October 10th Anniversary

The local Chinese community will celebrate the National Day on October 10 by hoisting the national flag. All schools and the majority of factories will observe the day as a holiday.

Pro-Chungking elements.

There is no indication that pro-National Government elements will conduct any organized propaganda activities, but surreptitious dissemination of literature by individuals is to be expected.

Pro-Japanese Organizations.

(Hongkew) At 10 a.m. the Shanghai Branch of the Great People Society will hold a meeting of members in its office at 427 East Seward Road. Lectures on the significance of the anniversary will be given.

(Nantao) At 9 a.m., the Nantao Administrative Office and the Nantao Branch of the Greater Shanghai Youths Corps will hold a mass meeting at No. 50 Ih Soh Ka (一粟街), Boon Lai Road, Nantao, and a lantern procession will probably be held during the evening.

(Pootung) In the forenoon, the Pootung Administrative Office will hold a mass meeting in the Ming Jing (明星) Amusement Resort, Tung Cheng Road, Pootung.
